IAML(NZ) Branch President's Report 2023

Included the following matters:

2022 conference

Held in Dunedin, organised by Amanda and Rhys. Included Anna Leese as the keynote speaker, various local speakers, a tour of the new School of Performing Arts, and a copyright session.

Committee

Michael Brown took up the Stout Scholarship at Victoria University of Wellington, and stepped back from being Secretary and on the Committee. The Committee shared the Secretary position in two month stints over 2023. Thanks to Julian Sutherland for stepping on to the Committee.

IAML Membership Committee

Rhys joined the Committee, and attended a Congress meeting online. Payment of membership fees is now able to be done by credit card.

Thanks to the Committee for their support over the past four years.

Other matters

National Library of New Zealand Disposal policy: IAML-NZ made a submission on the draft policy.
